In Re:
ORDER REGARDING CONTINUITY OF JUDICIAL OPERATIONS

The Judges of the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas , Domestic Relations Division make the following findings of fact :

- 1) Consistent with the federal and state declarations of emergency because of the Covid-19 pandemic
- 2) Consistent with the state order to close the schools in Ohio through May 1st and the stay at home order through May 1st, the Cuyahoga County Domestic Relations Court will continue to limit face to face Court business save for critical functions only, effective April 6,2020 through May 8, 2020 , to be re-evaluated at that time.

THEREFORE , IT IS ORDERED :

- 1) All prior orders are hereby incorporated within
- 2) The Court will evaluate all other types of non-essential hearings or matters for participation via video or telephone . The assigned Judge will have the discretion to continue or proceed with any non-essential matter via video , telephone or any other means as necessary.
- 3) The Court authorizes the use of any and all technologies for all actions and proceedings
- 4) Any contested trial set in the months of April and May shall be continued on a case by case basis and pursuant to the individual Judge before whom the matter is set.
- 5) Any person entering the building shall be screened prior to entry and must state their business in said Court.

This order shall be served upon the Cuyahoga County Clerk of Courts, the Cuyahoga County Common Pleas General Division, the Cuyahoga County Sheriff and the Cuyahoga County Executive, will be published on the website of the Court and will be provided to the media and the CMBA to be disseminated to the local bar.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
