

Statement of the AMCJO on Issue 1:

As judges, we support treatment for substance abuse. However, we cannot support this amendment as currently written, because (1) there are no rules or regulations for implementation and (2) such changes should be addressed legislatively rather than constitutionally.